01 Relief Work in Assam

The state of Assam faced devastating floods that left many families struggling for survival. Among those affected, 17 families were identified in Kopatoli, as being in urgent need of assistance. The provision of dry rations and essential items played a crucial role in alleviating their immediate struggles and helped them navigate through the difficult period.

Summer Camp for kids

02

A lively camp was held in two villages, engaging 300 children (140 and 160 in each village). Despite the hot weather, the children remained enthusiastic and actively participated, enjoying the opportunity for learning and creativity in a joyful environment. Action songs, games, and coloring activities were the main highlights of the camp.

03 Distribution of School essentials

Before the new school year, needy children received essential school supplies, including bottles, pen pouches, geometry boxes, and stationery. These gifts brought joy and the children expressed their gratitude. The excitement was evident in their smiles and they joyfully await the start of the academic year.

Study & Skilled Hands Centre

04

In Subasgram, West Bengal, a tuition centre with 17 children and a tailoring (training) unit with 7 women have been creating a significant impact in the society. The tuition center has enhanced educational opportunities for the children, while the tailoring unit has provided skill development for the women, contributing to the community's overall economic stability.
