"Children are the living messages we send to a time we will not see."

– John F. Kennedy

Celebrating Children

This month's activities focused on spreading happiness and celebrating children. Specific needs were identified in underprivileged remote locations, one in Assam and another in the Sundarban Islands of West Bengal.

Special Initiatives

- Special lunch for children in Canning, West Bengal
- Gifts & toys for children in Bodhumsa, Assam

Joy on a plate - Special meal on Children's Day

Serving a meal they longed for, a delicacy rarely found on their family menu, brought immense joy to 40 children in Canning. For many, it was their first experience savoring a hot plate of biryani, with the added delight of having as much as they wanted.

GIFT-A-SMILE

The best surprise for a child is a gift they can cherish—like a toy or a doll they'd love to hold. This joy came to life for 21 children from Bodhumsa, whose excitement lit up the moment they received their new toys. Their bright smiles said it all, expressing gratitude and pure happiness as they embraced their special gifts.

Gestures of kindness to drape them with dignity

Gently used clothes in excellent condition were collected and distributed to few children and adults. Each item carried a story of kindness, reminding us that small gestures can create lasting impacts.

Other activities

- Games & competitions
 - Video show
 - Cultural events
 - Motivational talk
