

CEPHAS JOURNAL

A heartwarming and joy-filled event dedicated to appreciating the love, strength, and sacrifices of mothers in our community ..

Highlights of Mother's Day celebration in Subhas Gram & Panikhowa

Subhas Gram, West Bengal

A total of 20 mothers, along with their children, participated in the celebration. The children lovingly praised their mothers for their selfless love and sacrifices, expressing heartfelt gratitude in their own sweet and sincere words. As a gesture of appreciation, they also honoured their mothers with roses, creating a touching and memorable moment for all.

Panikhowa, Assam

As part of this special program to strengthen mother-child bonds, fun activities like cup tower building and balloon bursting were held. A heartwarming highlight was when blindfolded children identified their mothers. The joy and surprise expressed made it a memorable moment. It was a truly meaningful day that left everyone with smiles, laughter, and full hearts.

A refreshing day during their summer vacation to regroup, connect, and have fun together- Kids Summer Program

With lively singing and dancing, group games, and creative drawing and colouring activities, the program offered the perfect blend of learning and laughter. The energy was contagious as they participated in every activity with enthusiasm.

It was a delightful and meaningful experience for 35 children from the Subhas Gram locality and 10 children from the Hale Nanjapura community. The day concluded with a fellowship lunch, where the children joyfully shared a meal, strengthening friendships and creating lasting memories.
