

Seen, Heard and Celebrated

International Women's Day, observed on the 8th of March, is a powerful reminder of the strength, resilience and dignity that women carry within them. This March, our team had the privilege of bringing that spirit of empowerment to remote villages, reaching women who had never before had a day dedicated entirely to honouring them.

Lakkavalli, Karnataka

25 women gathered for a celebration filled with songs, speeches and a lively family debate, with each participant receiving a steel plate in appreciation. The villagers were deeply touched, expressing heartfelt gratitude to the team for honouring them and giving them a platform to shine.

Begnabari and Sukanpukhuri, Assam

40 women gathered for a simple program that included gifting each participant an umbrella as a token of care. For them, it was not just a celebration, but also a meaningful moment of realizing that there is a day dedicated especially to honouring women.

Subhasgram, West Bengal

The enthusiastic women from the tailoring unit along with few others from the locality were called for a special program. The local leader delivered an inspiring message and all 30 participants were gifted a double-size mat. The women returned home happy and grateful, carrying smiles and a sense of encouragement.
